*Your dog may have a very distinctive appearance...
Your dog may have a personal gatekeeper...
Your dog may have the most careful supervision...
But even the most loved dogs need the protection of a current license!*

SAFEGUARD YOUR DOG WITH PROPER IDENTIFICATION- A 2007 LICENSE
IT'S THE LAW- AND THE HUMANE SOCIETY MAKES IT EASY!

The Humane Society of Berks County is enclosing an application for your dog's 2007 license. When you mail back the completed application, along with the standard license fee you'll promptly receive your 2007 Berks County Dog License. We hope that you will also consider making a modest voluntary donation of $10 or more to support the Humane Society's work to protect homeless, abused, and lost pets.

With a 2007 Berks County Dog License, your dog will have the security of proper identification. With your voluntary donation in support of the Humane Society's work, you'll have the security of knowing that you have helped to ensure that there is a safe refuge for lost dogs; dogs who aren't wearing a license so they don't have a "ticket home".

The Humane Society of Berks County, a private, non-profit organization, has been leading the way in promoting the welfare and humane treatment of animals since 1900. All of our funding comes from individual contributions and service fees. The Humane Society receives no funding from national or regional animal welfare organizations like the ASPCA or HSUS. The 7,000 animals loved and helped each year by the Humane Society of Berks County rely on the generosity of local people like you!
