ROXY, (FORMERLY LACY)

Dear Humane Society,

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for my dearest friend! I adopted a mix-breed Rat Terrier named “Lacy”. Her name is now “Roxy,” and I couldn’t imagine life without her. Initially, when I visited your website I saw her picture, but noticed she had an interesting bio. “Lacy” was said to be destructive and not housebroken according to her previous owners who brought her back to the HSBC. To make a long story short, “Roxy” turned out to be anything but destructive and not housebroken! What amazed me is that she has had no accidents in the house, and even though I started using a crate, I ended up taking it down and giving it away. “Roxy” greets me everyday with a huge display of affection when I come home from work. Thank you again for allowing me to find the perfect dog and companion. “Roxy” has found a permanent home, and will not be back at the HSBC ever again, except to visit!

Most Sincerely, Amy and Roxy
